

I support media diversity

I am writing to urge you to maintain the current regulations relating to media ownership. When I think of how we are held captive currently by the media monopolies in our country, I am filled with fear for what could lie ahead. I already find it necessary to listen to news broadcasts outside of my country if I want to learn what is happening, both in the world, and here in the United States. As I understand democracy, the people should have a say in what happens in their lives, state and country. When the power and money (and the media) rests with a few, there is less diversity, and we are destined to hear/read/see only what the corporate world which owns the media wants to make known. This deprives me of access to information which I need to make reasonable, informed decisions. It is imperative that we put an end to these attempts at mind control of US citizens.

Thank you for your efforts to hear how citizens of this country feel about the loss of their freedoms.

Sincerely,

Lois A. Holbrook
